Who is the Course for?

Do I need any prior experience? This course is suitable for graduate and non-graduate entrants. All trainers are required to demonstrate a minimum of Level 2 literacy, numeracy and ICT to achieve this qualification and credit will be given to those who have already successfully completed PTLLS. A level 3 qualification or equivalent must be completed in your specific area.

Will I need an Interview? Yes, you will need to meet with the tutor before you book on the course and bring your original qualification certificates with you.

What are the aims of the course?

Course aim: DTLLS is designed to provide

- education and training for those hoping to enter or who are already working in the education sector
- opportunities for teachers in the field of education to achieve a nationally recognised, vocationally specific, Level 5 qualification
- opportunities for full-time trainers to gain a nationally-recognised vocationally specific qualification to enter employment in the field of teaching or to progress to further vocational qualifications, including QTLS licence status.

What will the sessions consist of?

The topics you will study include:

Equality and Diversity, Delivering Employability Skills, Specialist Delivery Techniques and Activities, Teaching a Specialist Subject, Developing and Managing Resources within the lifelong learning sector and Action Research.

How is the course assessed?

The DTLLS course is internally assessed and a Pass grade is based on successful completion of a portfolio of evidence. Candidates will need to have at least 150 hours of teaching available to them over the 2 years.

How can I prepare for the course?
