YEARBOOK 2000

Well here it is: your very own copy of Yearbook 2000! Over the past five months some of us have been slaving away to produce this fantastic publication so that you will be able to treasure all your fondest memories from your time spent at Collyer's. It's amazing how much can happen over two years, and in that time I'm sure everyone has made some really good friends who even if they never see again I'm sure they will never forget. We have been lucky enough to have not one but two Principals to guide us through our time at Collyer's, and of course no Collyer's Yearbook would be complete without a picture of the man himself, Mr DJA. So for all you nostalgia kings and queens we have included a picture of Mr Arnold who undoubtedly has made us change our view of the world, or if not has made us count all the plug sockets in the Duckering Hall on a weekly basis during lecture! But it is our new Principal Mr Marchant who has the honour of writing the intro for your Yearbook.

Mr Arnold

Mr Marchant

I am pleased to be able to write this introduction to Collyer's twelfth yearbook (and the first during my time as Principal).

1981 and 1982 saw the births of hundreds of intelligent, amusing, cute and endearing babies in the Horsham area (a fact which is obvious from their photographs eighteen years on in this yearbook). To celebrate this, several momentous world events took place, including the abolition of the guillotine in France, the voting in of women priests by the Church of England, and the Falklands War. Even the Royal Family got in on the act and Prince William was born in June 1982. We listened to David Bowie and Adam and the Ants (who?); while we watched Cats and Chariots of Fire; a mysterious new disease was reported in the USA, which turned out to be AIDS; and with unemployment at 12.2% Norman Tebbit told us to "get on our bikes".

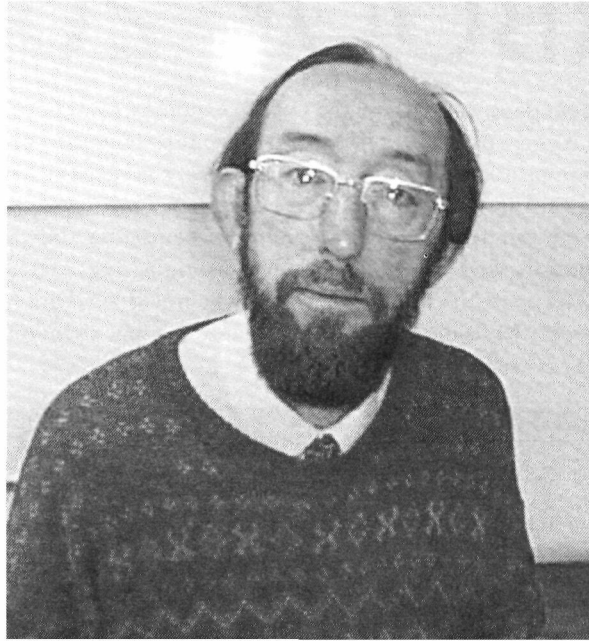

Interesting times? Perhaps - but probably not as interesting as the future that beckons the class of 2000. Congratulations to the Yearbook team on another excellent production and best wishes to all of you in the 21st Century.

Michael Marchant
