Hello everyone

The Met Office has issued a Red Extreme Heat Warning for this Wednesday and Thursday. In light of this, we have made the decision to close the college on both days. All lessons and meetings will be cancelled. We will not be moving online, as we do not wish students or staff to work from home or on site during this period.

The college will remain open tomorrow and this Friday. We are closely monitoring the situation and will send an update if there is any change to this.

Thank you for your understanding,

Kind regards,

Steve Martell Deputy Principal.
